TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD

GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Rules of origin

Note by the UNCTAD secretariat

This document contains relevant extracts from communications received from Myanmar,[1] the Republic of Korea,[2] Sri Lanka[3] and Viet Nam.[4]

Myanmar

"Please find enclosed the specimen of signatures and official seal used by the authorities and organization entitled to issue Certificates of Origin (Form A) in export transactions under the GSP."[5]

Republic of Korea

"The Korean Government has changed its stamps certifying origin, as attached herewith. For your reference, the new specimen stamps will be effective from 1 July 1998."[6]

Sri Lanka

"The Department of Commerce, which is the competent authority for the issuance of the Certificates of Origin under the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) will introduce a new official seal to be affixed on the Certificates of Origin of GSP as from 1 December 1998. A specimen of the new official seal that will be used from the said date is enclosed."[7]

GE.99-50259

Viet Nam

"... has the honour to transmit herewith the specimens of stamps for certificates of origin. The stamp of Ho Chi Minh City Branch in Article 2 is the new one and replaces the old one that was registered previously. Stamps in Articles 6, 7 and 8 are of representatives of the Viet Nam Chamber of Commerce and Industry who have been authorized to issue certificates of origin as from 1 April 1998. The stamp of Ho Chi Minh City Branch and the stamps in Articles 6, 7 and 8 will come into force on 1 April 1998. All other stamps are exactly the same as have been registered and will remain in effect."[8]
